MACROOM GIRL GUIDES

MacEgan Rangers Orbit – International Camp 2025

August 3rd saw 6 SB members leave for IGG's International Camp, Orbit hosted in Clongowes College, Co.Kildare. On the first full day of camp many activities were undertaken by the girls such as obstacle courses and group activities focused on team building and a quieter afternoon with yoga, youth advocacy and dance.

Tuesday, the girls enjoyed a swim and afterwards had the pleasure to chat and learn from members of the Trefoil Guild, past members of IGG who led a traditional camping skills activity zone focusing on gadget making and knot challenges. A scavenger hunt in the local town of Clane was Wednesday's morning activity along with the Camp Village being open with stalls from Aer Lingus, Irish Defence Forces, Trócaire and Sangam.

Senior Branch Sweet 16 was held to celebrate SB members throughout the year with party activities such as pass the parcel and karaoke taking part! The main event, International Night, was held in the sports hall with girls from all across the world showcasing their heritage and customs through dance, music, food, storytelling and skits.

Outdoor crafting took place Thursday, with camp goers building shelters and starting fires. Camp blankets and song books were put to use in the evening with a campfire & delicious snacks were had. Another chill morning was spent Friday (mostly as everyone had lost their voices!) and the girls took part in IGG's new coding game 'Campfire Quest' and coded robots which tie in with IGG's STEAM LEGO Leagues.

A workshop on Self Defence was held by a female led team, Jaqueline Almeida & Lorna Lawless from Her Space. Girls were taught practical self defence techniques in this engaging and empowering environment. Visit herspace.ie for more information A refresher course on CPR and First Aid was held along with workshops on SDGs and Climate Action. The SBers finished off the day with beading crafts and designing tiles which will be displayed in IGG's National Training Centre. It wouldn't be an International Camp without a Closing Ceremony to wrap festivities up! This was held Friday night before departure and IGG ambassador, Sheila Naughton and many other organisers of the event spoke to the girls before an electric party and sing song took place.

Orbit 2025 was an out of this world experience for MacEgan Rangers and an amazing opportunity to learn new skills, grow in confidence and build new friendships.

Fire Feast Fun By Órlaith & Annabelle

The evening started with tent pitching, striking and packing exercises. Our leaders then gave us a talk on the correct safety procedures around open fires and food hygiene and preparation in the outdoors. We all worked together in our Patrols, slicing peppers and courgettes for veggie skewers which we roasted over the fire as well as meat free sausages. We also baked potatoes in the hot embers. These all tasted lovely. For dessert we had chocolate covered bananas. Everything tasted really good. Luckily the weather was good too, it was dry and wasn't too cold. Everyone was chatting and having fun. Guides provide us with lots of skills and important information.

The night was a big success and everyone enjoyed themselves in the process. We are looking forward to our next outdoor activity!

MACROOM FLOWER & GARDEN CLUB

Macroom Flower & Garden Club Annual outing took place June 21st visiting Gardens in the Foynes area of Co. Limerick.

A stop at D & M Garden Centre Croagh for morning coffee and retail therapy was enjoyed with excellent service by staff members amid a busy Saturday morning at this venue. Our coach then proceeded to Knockpatrick Gardens where we were greeted by Mrs Helen O Brien and her family. The sun shone and the garden tour was spectacular a beautiful Halesia Tree was in full bloom, and in the shaded driveway Woodwardia Fern was admired. Following some photos the group proceeded to the Museum Café in Foynes where a light lunch was served and again staff were pleasant and efficient. The afternoon garden visit in Askeaton was a real gem, the two hour tour is to be remembered with many rare and unusual plants, plants were purchased from the Nursery and the bus hold-all was packed. The final stop was at The Woodlands Hotel Adare for Dinner. The group enjoyed a superb meal and returned to Macroom having enjoyed a wonderful day. We would like to thank McCarthy coaches and Driver for their kind attention and service. The Club will return Thursday September 11th with a Floral Demonstration by Jazmin O Gorman (AOIFA) at Coolcower House 8.00p.m. Visitors welcome. Please phone 087-9821708 for information regarding upcoming events.

THE MACROMPIAN COMMUNITY ACTIVE RETIREMENT

The Active Retired Group took off Garnish Island, Glengarriff on Wednesday 6th August, courtesy of the Garda Community Bus, with Orla doyle, our Community Garda at the helm.

This trip had the advantage of the OPW free day into Heritage Sites.

Peggy O'Connell oversaw this outing. The weather was pleasant, and everyone loved the Island with its unique selection of flowers and shrubs. The ferry took them past the rocks where the seals were basking so they could get a good view of them. They finished off the day with a lovely meal in Casey's Hotel, Glengarriff.

SENIOR CITIZENS AND MEALS ON WHEELS

Coffee Morning

Pat O'Connell and Evelyn McSweeney representing Macroom Senior Citizens with some of the large crowd that attended the Garden Fete

Ellen Lynch, Peggy and Pat O Connell, Mary Ryan and Evelyn McSweeney at the Senior Citizens and Meals on Wheels Coffee Morning organised by Ellen Lynch which took place in Ard Na Coille.

On Saturday the 7th of Auguust, a coffee morning organised by Ellen Lynch took place in Ard Na Coille.

It was for Macroom Senior Citizens and Meals on Wheels Service. Meals on Wheels operate seven days a week and provide 60 meals a day, which are prepared and cooked from the Macroom Senior Citizens centre in the town. They deliver meals seven days a week and cover a wide area with Macroom Town, Clondrohid, Aghabullogue, Crookstown to name a few,

On the day people were treated to some gorgeous home baking, live music, raffle prizes, an auction, chance to buy from the many donated items that were to be sold. Some of the items to be sold included Houseware, Plants, Ornaments, Toys to name a few. Catherine Ross Murphy was selling a selection of gorgeous cakes that included Madeira Loaves, Cherry Loaves, Fruit Loaves, Porter Cakes, Biscuit Buns Plains, Biscuit Buns Chocolate, Biscuit Buns Coffee, Rocky Road, Cheesecake Buns, Sponge Coffee Slices, Plain Scones, Brown Scones and Fruit Scones.

There was 25 Raffle Prizes to be won. With Pat O Connell calling out the raffle winners. A big thanks to everyone that sponsored the raffle: Jim Cooney Bookshop, Henry Murphy Pharmacy, Ali Browne Drapery, Beauty by Jolanta, Evelyn McSweeney, O Leary's Hardware, Padraig O Callaghan Hartnett's Butcher, Castle Hotel, Macroom Auto Factors, Lynch's Café, Dinneen's Bar, Pop Crowley's Enchanted Flowers, Dan Twomey, M.J Cronin's Drapery, Burke's Pharmacy, Mary's Toymaster, Inver Filling Station, Killian Lynch Auctioneer and Creedon's Inchigeelagh.

Thanks to Liam Forde for the lovely painting of Gougane Barra for the auction and was sold for the highest bidding at €100.

A big thanks to the sponsors who generously supported the event: Ciaran Ryan Plant Hire, Margaret & James Lehane, The Auld Triangle, Katherine & Howard Doherty, Super Valu, Aldi, Lidl, Connections and Dunnes Stores. The musicians on the day were Jerome Coakley, Ger Wolfe and Kevin O Brien.

A big thanks to the helpers leading up to the event and during the event: John Lyons, Katherine and Howard Doherty, Mary Ryan, Catherine Ross Murphy, Pat O Connell, Peggy O Connell, Evelyn McSweeney, Majella Moynihan and her children Ava, Daniel and Killian, Margaret & James Lehane, Paula & Ron O Driscoll and there children Darragh and Aoife, Conor O'Callaghan, Alma and kids Jamie and Andrew, Michael Lynch and Lisa Manning.

Macroom Senior Citizens thanked organiser Ellen Lynch, her family and friends for their outstanding efforts in organising the Garden Fete and Tea Party. 'Ellens Dedication, creativity and attention to detail made the event truly special for everyone Involved' 'We wish to extend our gratitude to all who attended and to those who helped out in any way"Your support, enthusiasm and generosity contributed greatly to making the day such a successful and enjoyable occasion. 'Events like this remind us of the wonderful community spirit we share. Thank you for making it a memorable day and the amount of money raised for Meals on Wheels Service was €3,100.

Chair of Macroom Senior Citizens Pat O Connell said fundraisers are very important and allows the community to continue to offer their services. 'Fundraisers are very important because we aren't governing bodies and without the fundraising, we wouldn't be able to operate especially with the price of food going up. 'It makes operating the Meal on Wheels very expensive. 'The Fundraisers are a big help to us. A very big thanks to all the members of the public who so generously donated to support a great cause. At the time of Writing €3,400 had been raised with bidding continuing for Ware.

Almost There. Getting ready for the Big Day, at the Senior Citizens and Meals on Wheels Coffee Morning organised by Ellen Lynch which took place in Árd Na Coille.

A Selection of the Cakes available, at the Senior Citizens and Meals on Wheels Coffee Morning organised by Ellen Lynch which took place in Ard Na Coille.

CANOVEE/CARRIGADROHID NEWS

Canovee Community Association CLG is delighted to share the exciting news that contracts have been signed and full funding has been secured for the construction of our new community playground.

The playground will be located on the western side of our national school and will serve as a wonderfully inclusive amenity for the entire community.

We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to everyone who supported us in making this project a reality especially Cllr. Ted Lucey, whose commitment from the very beginning has been invaluable.

Join Us for Songs, Stories & Smiles!

Singing for the Brain, a heartwarming initiative that brings people together through music, memory, and meaningful connection, is coming to Macroom next month. It is a wonderful opportunity to meet new people, reminisce through music, and be part of a supportive and uplifting group. This initiative is supported by Cork Kerry Community Healthcare, The Alzheimer Society of Ireland and the HSE.

Join us on Wednesday, 10th September, from 11am to 1pm at The Castle Hotel, Main Street, Macroom, for the very first session of this interactive singing group. Whether you're a seasoned singer or just enjoy humming along, everyone is welcome - no singing experience necessary!

Why Singing for the Brain?

Singing is more than just a joyful activity - it's a powerful tool for enhancing brain health and emotional wellbeing. Research shows that singing

- · Stimulate memory and cognitive function
- Reduce stress and anxiety
- Promote social interaction and reduce feelings of
- Improve mood and boost self-esteem support cognitive health while having fun.

• Encourage deep breathing and better posture Through familiar songs and shared stories, participants can experience joy, connection, and a sense of belonging. It's a simple yet powerful way to

A Warm Invitation to Everyone

This initiative is open to everyone in the community. Whether you come alone, with a family member, carer, or friend, you'll be greeted with smiles and song. It enables people of all ages and abilities to enjoy meaningful social activities together. By joining in, you're helping to build a more connected, compassionate community - one song at a time. The sessions are relaxed, welcoming, and designed to make everyone feel at ease.

How to Get Involved

For more information and to book a place contact Lucy O'Driscoll on 086 4504829. Booking is required due to limited capacity.

Ten Tidy Towns members helped with stewarding for the West Muskerry Athletic Club Road Race on August 12th. Thanks to Veronica Mendieta, Shelia Murphy, Martin Coughlan, Paul Kingston, Liam Walsh, Joe Cronin, Mick Crowley, Lisa Manning, Brian O Sullivan and Peter Burns and well done to West Muskerry Athletic Club for organising such a wonderful and successful event.

Areas where they provided assistance were St Coleman's Park, Oakwood, Aldi, Masseytown Junction, Mary Anne's Junction, Coolehane Junction, Bealick Mill, Rusheen Cross and at the Starting Line.

Tidy Towns monthly meeting took place on August 5th and some items of discussion included the Coolcower Picnic Area, Heritage Week, new Brochures for Coleman's Park Biodiversity Area and the Masseytown area to name a few.

Right now, the hanging baskets are in full bloom. Thanks to those premises in the town that have put up some nice floral displays on the buildings this year. These greatly enhance the streetscape, and there is room for plenty more! The judging is still ongoing in this year Tidy Town's Competition and again we would ask that all premises to stand back and have a look at their premises, from the path below to the roof above, free of cigarette butts etc and painted adequately. Five minutes of regular attention would greatly improve matters in some cases and greatly assist the volunteers who must look after so many other things and public areas. Here is hoping we can still retain our gold medal. As always, tidy towns volunteers have been busy with Litter Picking, General Maintenance around town, cutting grass in the green areas on housing estates, weeding, planting, pruning, etc. The Playhouse in the Sensory Garden now has a concrete floor and the musical entertainment piece with the hanging tubes

So many people compliment the work we do and admire what is been done but why not consider doing something small yourself in your own local areas, as this helps the overall effort, inspires others and there is a feel-good factor. We in Tidy Towns will support you in whatever way we can. You may also like to come along and join us some Saturday morning at 9am at our base in Masseytown as we are always open to new people joining in and helping with the work. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Lisa at 087-1434770.

31ST CORK LISSARDA BEAVERS, CUBS AND SCOUTS

31st Cork Lissarda Beavers, Cubs and Scouts had lots of fun helping at Crookstown Vintage Field Day on 10th August.

We set up our display of tent, dining shelter and pioneering gadgets. Then we got our fires lighting. We showed passers-by how we can cook on an open fire and invited them to join in too. We made some delicious bread-on-a-stick, sausages, burgers and we drew a large crowd when we started toasting marshmallows! It was great to be part of this community day - thanks to Crookstown Vintage Club for having us.

We're also celebrating 10 years of Scouting in Lissarda this year. We had a day of celebration in June when our Beavers, Cubs, Scouts, Ventures, Leaders and our support network of family and friends all gathered for an activity day and barbecue and Ballyhass Coachford. Our Beavers had a morning of adventure on the High Nets and obstacle course, while our Cubs, Scouts and Ventures took to the water in kayaks. After the barbecue, we had a ceremony to award badges to our youth members. Many of our adult Leaders were awarded certificates and badges too, acknowledging their many years of service to Scouting. It was an enjoyable day out for everybody - here's to many more years of Scouting in Lissarda!

31st Cork Lissarda have weekly meetings at Crookstown Hall (when we're not exploring the outdoors). Our Beavers are 6-8 year olds, Cubs 9-11 year olds, Scouts 12-15 year olds and Ventures 16-18 year olds. We're always looking for adult leaders for each section (training is provided).

If you'd like to get involved, contact us on 31corklissardawaitinglist@gmail.com or on Facebook at "31st Lissarda Scout Page".

MEP KELLEHER SEEKS URGENT MEETING OF FIANNA FÁIL PP TO DISCUSS FORTHCOMING PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

Fianna Fáil MEP Billy Kelleher has said that a meeting: of his party's Parliamentary Party should be convened urgently to discuss the forthcoming Presidential Election. Kelleher, an MEP for Ireland South, added that without a meeting convened soon, Fianna Fáil TDs, Senators and MEPs will not meet in person until mid-September at the will ultimately be tasked with selecting a party candidate to meet to discuss the issue.

"To my mind, this is too late in the day for the people who :

"I contacted the Cathaoirleach of the Parliamentary Party, Brendan Smith TD asking him to convene a meeting to discuss this most critical of issues.

Why Would You Need a Chiropractic Adjustment and Does It Hurt?

by Dr. Ben Martin Optimal Chiropractic, Ballincollig

People often wonder when you might need to see a chiropractor.

Chiropractic care isn't just for those with back or neck pain. Many people seek adjustments for stiffness, headaches, or tension from sitting at a desk all day. Others come in because they want to improve posture, stay active, or prevent small aches from turning into bigger problems.

Regular chiropractic care supports the body's natural ability to heal and function at its best, which is why many patients choose to continue care even after their initial concern improves.

One of the most common questions we hear is: "Does the adjustment hurt?" For someone who has never had one before, it can sound a little intimidating. The good news is that chiropractic adjustments are safe, gentle, and usually guite comfortable.

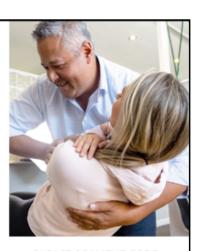

During an adjustment, your chiropractor uses specific, controlled movements - most often with their hands or a small instrument - to restore proper motion to joints that aren't moving the way they should.

You may hear or feel a small "pop" or "click." This is simply gas being released from the joint, much like when you crack your knuckles, and it's completely normal. Most patients describe the experience as relieving and even relaxing.

Afterwards, you may notice that your body feels lighter, looser, and more at ease. Some patients notice an immediate decrease in stiffness or discomfort, while others may feel mild soreness, similar to how you might feel after starting a new exercise routine. This is a natural part of your body adjusting to improved alignment and function, and it typically passes within a day or two. Many patients also report sleeping better, moving more easily, and experiencing a greater sense of well-being.

Chiropractic adjustments are are designed to be comfortable and tailored to each individual's needs. Whether you're dealing with discomfort or simply want to move better and stay healthy, chiropractic care offers a safe and natural way to support your body's ability to heal and function at its best.

COMMEMORATING 60 YEARS: A MUSEUM AT KILMURRY

Opening of The Terence MacSwiney Memorial Museum1965

On 19 September 2025, Independence Museum Kilmurry will proudly celebrate six decades safeguarding Ireland's local and revolutionary history.

Its story began in the early 1960s, when Kilmurry Historical Society was formed to preserve the rich heritage and cultural traditions of the area at a time of rapid economic and social change. The museum was set up as a folk museum covering local history, archaeology and tools used in agriculture and craft industries that were already disappearing by 1965 as Ireland embraced modernity and industrialisation. Kilmurry was one of the first rural villages in Ireland to have such as museum.

This area of mid-Cork is also strongly associated with the country's struggle for independence, particularly in the 1920s, with Béal na Bláth, Crossbarry, Kilmichael, Lissarda and Newcestown ambush sites within proximity of Kilmurry. Inspired by Terence MacSwiney—Lord Mayor of Cork who died on hunger strike in 1920—the society sought to honour his memory and the region's pivotal role in the struggle for independence.

On 19 September 1965, the original museum, named The Terence MacSwiney Memorial Museum was opened in a small house once linked to Terence MacSwiney's ancestors and his daughter, Máire MacSwiney Brugha became its first patron. Early exhibits included poignant revolutionary artefacts such as a sprig of shamrock worn in Wormwood Scrubs jail and a section of the packing case used to return MacSwiney's coffin home to Cork.

To commemorate the 60th anniversary of a museum in Kilmurry village, Independence Museum Kilmurry host the following events:

Friday, 19 September 2025

- · A Commemoration Mass at St. Mary's Church, Kilmurry at 7.30 pm. Fr. Michael Kelleher (a Kilmurry native with close links to Independence Museum Kilmurry) will say Mass. Choirs from St. Mary's and St. Andrews's churches, Kilmurry will sing a selection of hymns. Peadar O'Riada, musical composer from Cúil Aodha will sing the final hymn.
- · Following Mass, a plaque will be unveiled at Independence Museum Kilmurry acknowledging that the site for the new museum was generously donated by Domhnall Ua Buchalla and family. Domhnall Ua Buachalla was a founding member of The Terence MacSwiney Memorial Museum and a previous Chairman of Kilmurry Historical & Archaeological Association Limited.
- · An exhibition will be launched in the Heritage Room featuring a 60-year timeline with pictures and information on the founding members, people and events of Kilmurry museum from 1965 to the launch of the new Independence Museum Kilmurry, this will include local and national changes that have occurred in the area during this period. Tea, coffee, and refreshments will be served after this event.

 Kilmurry Parish Schools artwork will be displayed which will focus on the theme of the original museum and life in the 1960s.

Saturday, 20 September 2025

• Stepping into History – A Walking Tour of Kilmurry village. Inspired by this year's theme for Heritage Week - 'Exploring our Foundations' there will be an opportunity to delve into the building blocks of our local heritage, the landscape, physical buildings, cultural activities, and the daily lives of our ancestors that shaped us. A walking tour of the village will commence at 3 pm from Independence Museum. This tour will include St. Andew's Church, St Mary's graveyard, the original museum building, local businesses, Kilmurry Grotto and St. Mary's Church. Local historians and museum guides will give a brief talk at each location. The duration of the walking tour will be approximately 90 minutes.

All are welcome to the weekend commemoration events. We hope that you join us in celebrating and exploring our past and honouring the founding members of Kilmurry Historical Society.

Where the Past Meets the People: THE TEAM AT LIR ARCHAEOLOGY

If you've ever taken a walk along the Sullane or stood on the slopes above Ballyvourney and felt there was something ancient in the air, you're not wrong. Beneath our fields, under our riverbanks, and even in the bends of our boreens, the past lies quietly, waiting to be heard.

That's where Lir Archaeology Heritage and Planning Consultancy comes in — a local business with a mission to protect, preserve, and share our heritage. At the heart of the team is Dr. Enda O'Flaherty, always with an eye for the old stone wall in a field or the faint lines of a forgotten road. After studying archaeology and earning his PhD in Landscape Archaeology in Galway, Enda brings nearly 20 years of professional experience, with a deep understanding of the land — its history, its traditions, and the layers of heritage beneath it — and believes strongly that development and heritage can go hand in hand when handled with care.

With him is Ewelina Rondelez, who has made her home here after a career that's taken her across Europe and the Middle East. A post-excavation expert, she's the one who carefully examines and preserves the artefacts and finds that tell our story whether that's a shard of pottery from centuries ago or a tool lost to time. Her meticulous work ensures nothing is forgotten once it comes out of the ground. Together, they lead a friendly, approachable team offering services for everyone — from farmers $% \left(1\right) =\left(1\right) \left(1\right)$ planning a shed extension to developers starting major projects. They provide archaeological surveys, site monitoring, test trenching, and excavations, making sure all works meet planning and heritage requirements without unnecessary delays or costs.

But it's not all about paperwork and dig sites. Lir Archaeology has a special grá for local history and folklore. They've helped schools record oral histories from older generations, researched the origins of place-names, and worked with community groups to document the stories that make this area unique. They know that heritage isn't just buried under the soil — it's alive in the memories of our people.

Because they're based here, they understand the needs of the community. They'll meet you for a cup of tea to talk through a project, explain what's required in plain language, and handle the formalities with planning authorities so you can get on with the work you need to do.

For Enda and Ewelina, this isn't just a job — it's a way to give back to the place they call home. Every survey, every excavation, and every story recorded is another piece of our shared history protected for the future. So, if your next project is set to stir the earth, or if you're part of a local group keen to explore the past, call in to Lir Archaeology. Because here in the Muskerry hills, the past is never far beneath our feet — and it's worth minding well.

NUACHT UIBH LAOIRE

Great atmosphere in Inchigeela with the beginning of the annual festivities, otherwise known as the Inchigeela Festival . This years offerings again are super with something to suit everyone's taste, fantastic bands, fantastic music, fantastic dancing. Bar extension til late and food galore close by. The first weekend,15th of Aug opened with local star, Patrick O Sullivan followed by new rising star Jack Keogh from Wicklow. Saturday night was the Kilkenneys and on Sunday we danced to the 90s tribute band Smash Hits. The king of county Derek Ryan kicks off Weekend 2 (Fri 22) Folk legends 'One for the Road'are on stage on Saturday night, and the indomitable 'Bog the Donkey'bring the festival to an explosive end, making us all wish there could be another weekend of fun like this in Inchigeela. Thanks to all the artists on stage and well done to all the organisers and volunteers. It's a credit to you all. Other news. The annual Daniel Corkery Summer School was held recently and was a huge success with large crowds annd interesting topics each day. (More about that in next issue of LV Outlook.)The villages look good this summer and the workmen and volunteers can be proud of their work. The new road surfaces in each village and on their connecting roads has made a great addition to road safety. Just a few areas of over grown roadside hedges to be dealt with now, especially on the Inchigeela/Dunmanway road and we'll drive safer and happier. Congrats to Ballingeary Tidy Towns on winning their section on the Litter Challenge. The parish Active Retired group had a great day on a boat trip in Cork Harbour, with a meal out on their way home . They ran a bingo night as well recently with tea and lovely cakes for the supporters. In Beal átha, teachers are sought for Irish classes in an informal setting. The volunteers need not be teachers but would have a reasonable command of the language. Well done to 5 members of the pipe band who competed in the World Pipe Band competition in Glasgow, Paudie , Doireann, Flor, Eddie and John. Don't forget to continue taking photos throughout the year for entry to the Feilire Béal átha competition. And last but not least, the good news that Áine Cotter, an Inchigeela lady,has won a place in the last eight to compete in the National traditional brown cake baking competition and the final bake off will be held during the National Ploughing Championships in Co Offaly, in September. There are some wonderful prizes on offer and we wish her every success . Áine is daughter of Billy and Nora M of Cappanclare, Inchigeela.

LISSARDA AMBUSH COMMEMORATION

The annual commemoration of Lissarda Ambush will take place on Sunday 24th August at 7.30 pm at the ambush site. This year will mark the 105th anniversary of Lissarda Ambush, one of the earliest ambushes during the War of Independence.

Rosary will be recited by Fr. Michael Kelleher, and the Tricolour will be raised by Der Kelleher, grandsons of Quartermaster Michael Galvin who died in the ambush. This year's oration will be given by Trish Collier, Principal of Kilmurry National School. All are welcome to attend this Macroom Castle Arch needs to be repaired and the Castle Demesne Committee is about to tackle the task. The Arch is an important landmark in Macroom's streetscape and an iconic symbol of the town. It is part of Macroom Square and the most obvious and best preserved part of the Castle. Only a small portion of the Castle itself is still standing, coupled with what were its stables and garage where the Burkes valet cars. However, some years ago slates fell from the Arch and posed a danger. Nets were erected as a temporary expedient; now, a long-term solution is at hand. The Committee has received a grant but needs more funds. It will hold a Golf Classic to this end – see accompanying flyer. This article outlines briefly the history of the Castle and the Arch in particular.

Macroom Castle was probably initially built by the O'Flynns about the eleventh century- others mooted are the Carew and the Dalton clans. Then, Ireland was a series of small kingdoms and, locally the O'Flynn sept held sway. The name survives in the Irish for Muskerry - Muscraí Uí Fhloinn. They were ousted by the McCarthys who ruled (mostly) the area from the thirteenth to the late seventeenth century; following King William's Battle of the Boyne (1690) victory over King James, they lost possession. The Castle was first burned accidentally in 1602 during a siege by the Crown's agent Wilmot in a prelude to the Battle of Kinsale (1603). The Castle was again burnt and witnessed the Battle of Macroom (1650) when Bishop McEgan's Confederate forces were defeated; McEgan was captured, brought to Carrigadrohid Castle where he heroically advised his troops not to surrender and paid with his life - he was hanged. Within a few years, Cromwell's general Broghill yet again burnt the Castle and the town. For a failed mission, Admiral William was exiled to Ireland (Macroom first, then Shanagary) by Cromwel: in Macroom, young William was tutored by Quaker preacher Thomas Loe and later claimed (he, Penn) to have been 'visited by The Lord'. Shortly after Cromwell's death, Admiral Penn helped to restore Charles II, was duly rewarded and returned to England. Penn Junior went to America and founded Pennsylvania. The Hollow Sword Blade acquired the Castle c. 1703 whence it came into Lord Bandon ownership and later to the Hedges Eyres family. It became home to Robert Hedges Eyres in the nineteenth. In the early 1800s he initiated town improvements such as good slated houses in New Street, building the Court House, renovating the Church of Ireland church in Castle Street, improving the Market House, predecessor of the Town Hall, and gave money for the restoration of Macroom's Catholic Church. His son-in-law William White, fourth Earl of Bantry, inherited the Castle. When he died, his sister Olivia (born there in 1850) became the last owner. She married Arthur Edward Guinness and became Lady Ardilaun. The Ardilauns had no children. On his death, she was, reputedly, the second richest woman in the then United Kingdom (after Queen Victoria). Lady Ardilaun was largely an absent landlord and owned much land and many properties in Macroom.

When the Arch was first built is difficult to say. In Ring's 'Macroom Through The Mist of Time (1995), pp. 143-13, sketches suggest a date 1652 to c. 1750 and implies that people such as Cardinal Rinuccini, Bishop McEgan, William Penn Senior, William Penn Junior passed through this space if note the Arch itself. The Castle Demesne itself was private property with access limited to the owners, their guests and workers. The Arch marked the boundary. T.C. Murray reflects this sense of 'being locked out of' of his own place in his plays. Lady Ardilaun opened the Castle Grounds on special occasions but complained bitterly of 'vandalism' on one such day.

During the War of Independence, The cortege of the bodies of the sixteen Auxiliaries killed at Kilmichael Ambush (28 November 1920) left the Castle through the Archway and was led by Reverend Brady and Canon Higgins PP. This was done partly out of respect for the dead and partly out of fear. Brady and Higgins are credited with helping to reducing tensions following the ambush and possibly preventing the burning of the town in reprisal.

Another dramatic incident occurred at the Arch, this time before Civil War hostilities broke-out. Four British soldiers on reconnaissance from Ballincollig Barracks were taken prisoner in Williams Hotel (now the Castle H.) and subsequently shot, and buried in Kilgobnet, Clondrohid. On a fourth visit, a 60-strong patrol of armoured cars etc., led by Colonel Bernard Mongomery (Monty of WWII El Alamein fame) demanded their release. Local IRA leader Charlie listened and gave Montgomery five minutes to leave town. When Montgomery saw the IRA in ambush positions around the square, he withdrew. The British withdrawal was castigated in the House of Commons and embarrassed the Prime Minister Lloyd George and Secretary Churchill. A decision to fight by the British would have resulted in a bloodbath and their possible military re-entry into Ireland.

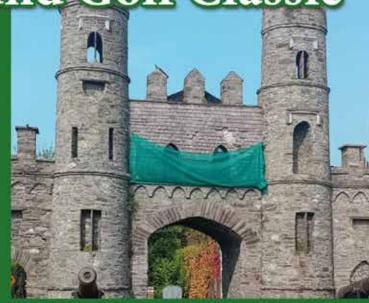

The IRA Anti-treatites burned the Castle in August 1922 and its contents were looted (or saved!) and access to the Castle Demesne was free. The Castle Demesne Committee bought the Grounds. It now has beautiful walks, a GAA pitch and dressing rooms and a wonderful golf course. A bridge connects it to the Town Park and its GAA pitches and soccer and where cricket is now played regularly. McEgan College is sited there as well as its attendant Sports Complex and all-weather play area.

Less dramatically but perhaps no less the Arch has admitted people watching matches, attending shows and sports meeting (Castle Grounds) and films and pantomimes (Castle Cinema), attending dances (Castle Ballroom), coursing meetings and Pitch & Toss sessions. Macroom ICA built and rebuilt its 'hut' there, allowing Macroom women the opportunityand space to meet and socialise. Macroom Youth Club was a wonderful facility in its time (basketball, athletics, indoor soccer, table tennis, drama etc.). The Arch was also a venue for boy/girls meeting on dates, and a pick-up point for children to be collected by their parents. Macroom GAA teams left from the Square, at the Monument, and between the Arch and the Town Hall, reminders of who they represented.

Even if you are not a golfer, perhaps you can donate to this worthy project. The past is what made us who we are today, and in that regard, the Arch has great significance for the town and district.

Macroom Castle Arch Restoration Fund Golf Classic

The Trustees of Macroom Castle Demesne, in partnership with Macroom Golf Club are pleased to announce a once off golf classic which will take place on Friday 12th September 2025. The funds raised from this classic will go towards the upgrade works at the Castle Gates, a historic and majestic feature in the centre of Macroom town. The last major upgrade work happened in 1972. The works have been costed out and government grants will cover a significant portion of the project. However, match funding is required by the Trustees to ensure full completion of the proposed project; It is for this reason we are hosting a golf classic.

We are inviting individuals, business owners and community groups to get involved in this fundraiser.

Sponsorship of a tee box fee €100 Team of three entry fee (incl meal for each player) €200

There will be a fine selection of prizes for the winners of the classic across a range of categories, including some signed Padraig Harrington golf wear!

We anticipate lots of demand for this event so please book your Tee times without delay.

An Buachaillis an Chaora By Tadgh Quill-Manley

Ar maidin chiúin i gceanntar Mhaigh Chromtha, Thar mhaolchnoc bán do shiúil mé liom, Bhí drúcht ar fhéar is féar ar m'chos, 'S na gaotha mall ag gol.

Chonaic mé caora i bhfál faoi ghlas, A súile dubha lán le bas. Do chrom mé síos — "a mhilis, a ghrás, Fan ciúin, táim leat, a stór."

Scaoil mé an sreang ó'n gclúmh geal bán,

Is scuab sí mo lámh le bogshnáith lán, Bhí an ceo thart orainn, Mhaigh Chromtha sa bhfad, Is an ghaoth mar shean-chanúint mhór.

D'imigh sí saor thar mhullach an ghleann, Ach d'fhan an tost im chroise ann, Grá ciúin, doimhne mar uisce an tsruth. Nach n-imíonn choíche as mo mheabhair. A young farm boy walks alone across the misty hills surrounding Macroom early in the morning. The grass is wet with dew, and the wind moves softly over the hills. He finds a sheep trapped in a fence, frightened and in pain. Kneeling beside her, he gently reassures her and frees her from the wire. As he does so, the sheep's wool brushes his hand, and the mist curls around them. The boy notices the hills of Macroom in the distance, adding a sense of place and quiet beauty.

Once freed, the sheep bounds away across the glen, but the boy remains in the hush of the hill. He feels a deep, quiet love and tenderness, a lingering emotion that stays with him long after the moment has passed.

Entrance to Cahervaglier Ring Fort

Hi! Chris Barrett back with you.

Today we have the opportunity to share learning from my good friend and regular contributor, the local archeologist, Tony Miller.

Tony starts by telling us that between the 5th and 12th Centuries AD Ireland enters the early medieval period- a time of great change with an improving economy, population growth and many great artistic achievements. Society also moves out of prehistory and into the historic period when the first texts and documents are being written down in Irish.

Most historians and archaeologists would agree that the biggest influence at this time came from the establishment and growth of the Christian church. Christianity reached Ireland through contacts made with the Roman Empire where it had been made the state religion in the 4th Century by the Emperor Constantine. Christianity took hold very quickly and peacefully here, becoming an integral part of society. It was based on small, local monastic settlements under the control and protection of the large number of tribal kingdoms which proliferated at the time.

A typical early monastic settlement consisted of a large, circular enclosing bank, sometimes as large as 300m in diameter. The central area was considered the most sacred and was where the wooden church and graveyard were usually located. This was then surrounded by houses for the religious community and then land for workers to live in and for cultivation. There are a considerable number of these still surviving, though not always clearly visible but can be indicated by later medieval churches. The larger encircling banks can survive in the field systems or streetscapes. Good examples near Macroom include Bawntemple to the east, Caherbaroul to the north and Kilgobnet to the west. There is also St. Gobnait's shrine in Ballyvourney. The majority of these early monastic sites stayed small while others grew into the very beginnings of town life such as probably the most well known at Clonmacnoise. Near the end of the early medieval period a small number were also marked by the construction of round towers. There are only two surviving in the county and one of these is near Enniskeane at Kinneigh, which is well worth a visit.

These monastic sites also stimulated agricultural expansion by providing opportunities for trade and the exchange of improved farming practices. These included the growing of oats and rye, the use of the coulter plough capable of breaking up heavier soils and the introduction of the horizontal watermill. This mill involved intricate carpentry and design and allowed for a relatively small and slow river to directly turn millstones above the horizontally turning paddle wheels. There are more of these early mills from this period found in Ireland than anywhere else in Europe and one of the first fully excavated was not far from Macroom, at Cloontycarty.

There is evidence for population growth at this time and the majority of people, all largely working in farming, lived in what is probably the most well known archaeological monument- the ringfort. They are also known as raths, liss's, cashels, cahers (both stone built) and 'fairy forts'. The total number recorded in the country is about 50,000 with the majority built in the years between 600 and 900 AD. Ringforts can be recognised as a large circular banks sometimes with surviving external ditches and raised interiors. They were enclosed farmsteads occupied by an extended family with not only circular huts to live in but other buildings for storage and craft working as well as areas to keep animals. The economy was based on mixed farming with cattle being the most valuable possession. Cattle raiding was common at the time and wolves still roamed freely, so a safe place was needed to keep cattle secure overnight. Dairying was now dominant and the 'white meats' (butter and cheese) were an important part of everyone's diet.

Ringforts can be found almost everywhere that there is good land. They represent a society that was based on small territorial units belonging to tribal kinship groups with a clear hierarchy. Larger ringforts, with up to 3 concentric rings of banks, reflected high status occupants while the surrounding smaller ringforts belonged to tenant farmers. There are many ringforts to be seen around Macroom while there is an especially elaborate one, known as Cahervagliar, to be found just outside Coppeen.

Commonly associated with ringforts is another rather mysterious monument, known as a souterrain. These are commonly known locally as 'caves' and are often found when a tractor or digger suddenly collapses into a hole in the ground. They consist of a series of underground chambers cut into the earth which are connected by narrow, low 'creepways'. Their exact function is still debated but the most common idea is that they were used for refuge or storing valuables during time of attack. Many stories abound that they run between two or more ringforts but this has not yet been found to be true.

The year 795 AD saw the first Viking raid on the Irish coast. Further attacks over the following years were to have an important impact on Irish society. One change was the development of larger more centrally organised lordships which could coordinate more effective defences against the Viking raiders and raise the taxes needed for this protection. This defence proved so effective that the Vikings never held large swathes of territory here as they did in both Britain and Europe. Instead the Vikings were left controlling small, strategic coastal areas which grew into the first true urban centres, such as Dublin, Cork, Waterford and Limerick. These became vibrant trading centres and the economy as a whole expanded. The new regional kingdoms became wealthier leading to construction of new stone built churches replacing the earlier timber ones, the building of round towers and carving of High Crosses. The closest High Cross to Macroom is the Kilnaruane one located behind Bantry House. Great works of art were also produced such as the Book of Kells and intricate silver jewellery for both personal and religious use. One local example is the shrine of St. Lachtain's Arm, originally from Donoughmore but now in the National Museum.

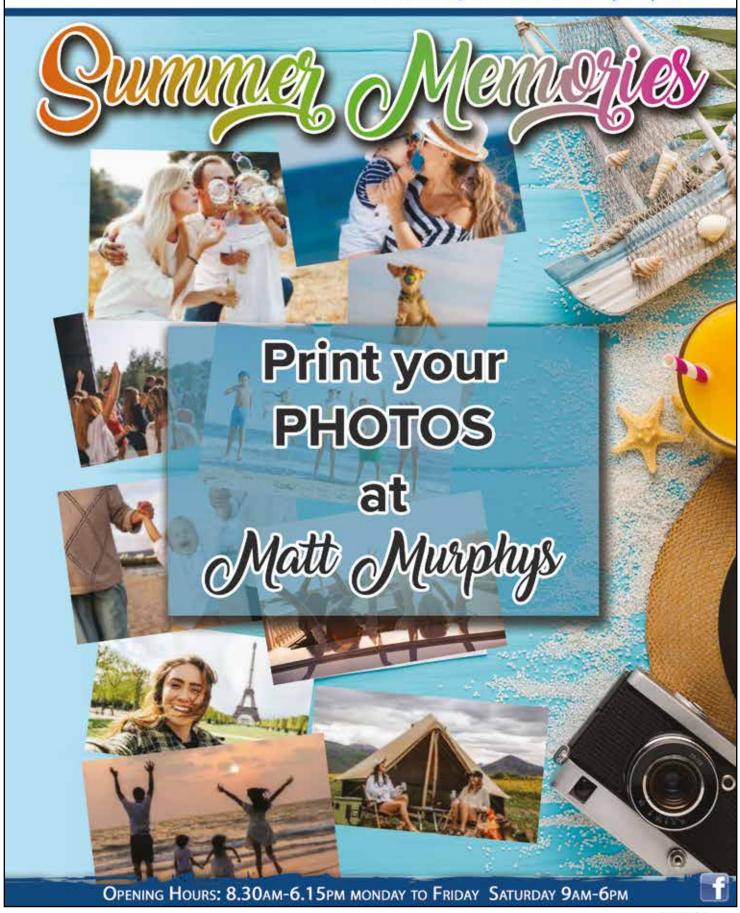

By the 10th Century a new rich culture had emerged which we now call Hiberno-Norse. In Cork City a settlement began in the area of South Main Street which quickly expanded into North Main Street.

The Vikings were now involved in Irish politics and one of their first major defeats was at the hands of Brian Boru in 978 in the Battle of Bealick fought on the outskirts of Macroom. This site is reputedly marked by a large standing stone near the Sullane. This way of life was soon to come to an end and with it the period we know as early medieval. In 1169 an Anglo Norman army was invited from Wales to Waterford to help in a dynastic struggle within Leinster. They would soon find Ireland as a land of opportunity and colonisation.

I feel very grateful to have had the opportunity to learn so much from Tony Miller and thank him for sharing his considerable local knowledge with us. If you or anyone you know would like to respond to this article or contribute a similar one, please contact me chrisleevalley@gmail.com

SAFE ROUTES ₹ TO SCHOOL

New School Street & Safe Routes to School Infrastructure!

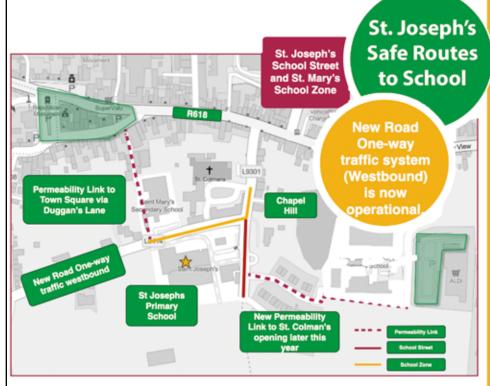

Over the summer Cork County Council, delivered a new school street at the front of St. Joseph's National School and a school zone at the front of St. Mary's Secondary School, along with wider Safe Routes to School infrastructure in the town, some of which will be on-going through Autumn 2025.

St. Joseph's school street along Chapel Hill, and St. Mary's school zone along New Road, aims to remove traffic from the front of school creating a safer, calmer environment for students. Local access remains for residents south of St. Josephs school of Chapel Hill.

A new one-way traffic system (Westbound) has become operational for New Road along with new footpaths and crossing facilities. Duggan's Lane to the Town Square has also been improved.

A new permeability link will be opening in Autumn 2025 from St. Joseph's to St. Colman's via 'The Orchard. A new raised pedestrian crossing to replace the existing crossing on Main Street is due Autumn

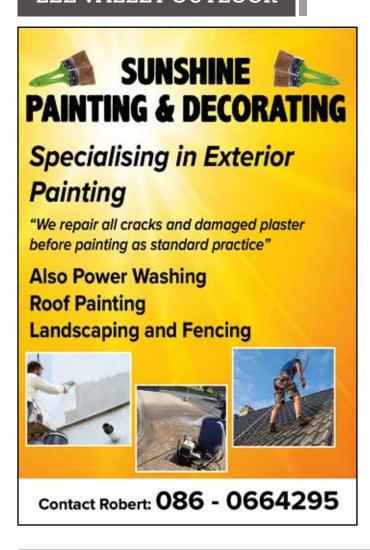

The diagram below indicates the extent of the School Street and School Zone.

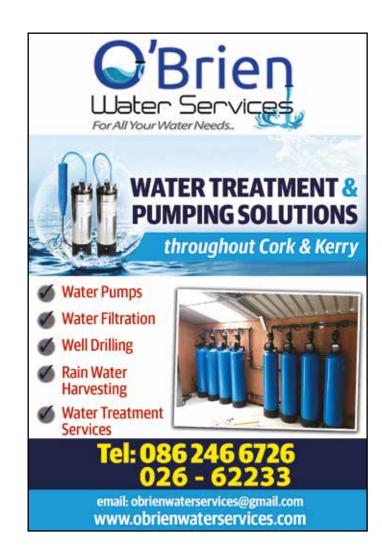

What can you do to help?

- Adhere to the principles of the School Street and avoid driving to the front of school.
- Accompany, encourage and/or be extra vigilant of those students who walk, cycle, or wheel.
- Use Park and Stride where possible.
- Use the pedestrian crossing facilities along your routes to and from school – a new raised pedestrian crossing to replace the existing crossing on the Main Street is due Autumn 2025.
- Please make sure to park respectfully, legally, and safely, avoiding double yellow lines and being careful not to block footpaths or house entrances.
- Adhere to the new one-way traffic system westbound on New Road.

GAA CHAMPIONSHIPS 2025 CAMOGIE

Glen Dimplex 2025 Senior All Ireland Championship Final Galway 1-14 Cork 1-13

No Cork three-in-a-row, their hopes shattered by Galway's aggression.

Galway were underdogs arriving in, for the second final in-a-row they stood in Cork's face and refused to budge. Unable to see the job through 12 months ago, they did on this occasion, albeit just.

Cork played the entire second half a player short following Hannah Looney's straight red in first-half injury time. Galway's lead was five points on 51 minutes but Cork put in a tremendous rally and drew level only to be defeated by a point scored in injury time from a contested free.

Cork, led by Laura Treacy's doggedness and Saoirse McCarthy's sweet freetaking, brought the margin back to a score. On the hour mark, they were level. Ashling Thompson's delivery was snapped and buried by Orlaith Cahalane. Cork's voice was finally found.

Despite five minutes of second-half injury time being played, this final of ferocious contact gave the crowd of 28,795 just one more score. That score came in the third minute of injury-time, captain Carrie Dolan getting herself up the steps when converting a free dripping in difficult out on the Cusack Stand sideline. Cork never managed a single equalising attempt thereafter.

Aggression was the central theme in the Galway game plan. Stop the Cork running game at the start line. Physicality at source to prevent possession snapped and short passes played. Aggression stifling athleticism. Within the opening eight minutes, Amy O'Connor and Hannah Looney spent time on the deck receiving treatment. Orlaith Cahalane lay stretched just past the quarter hour mark. Galway were tackling right on the edge. Cork were sore and unsettled by it.

At times, Galway went past the edge. Aoife Donohue saw yellow (only yellow!) for her goal-preventing pull across Amy O'Connor on 11 minutes. The consequent penalty, somewhat surprisingly struck by Katrina Mackey, was saved by Sarah Healy. Amy O'Connor did convert the resultant '45 for a 0-3 to 0-2 Cork lead, but the next five minutes saw the westerners outgun their opponents 1-2 to 0-1 for a three-point lead.

Now, back to the physicality. Justin Heffernan's whistle was broken. Next to nothing was being pulled. That was until Galway's aggression unnerved Cork to such an extent that Cork's nerve snapped.

First, the context before we arrive at the red. Ashling Thompson played a ground pass to Saoirse McCarthy. The Cork half-forward was swallowed robustly whole by Derval Higgins, Ailish O'Reilly, and Siobhan Gardiner. Possession broke to Donohue, Thompson fouled her. Carrie Dolan converted and Galway were five in front. 1-8 to 0-6.

Two minutes later and in the same area in front of the Hogan Stand, Katrina Mackey was the latest in red to be swallowed. She handpassed to Laura Hayes. Such was the pressure on the half-back, she dropped possession out over the sideline. Niamh Mallon clinched her fist in pumped delight.

Before the sideline was taken, red mist. Hannah Looney raised her hand to Carrie Dolan's helmet after the Galway woman had shouldered her from behind unexpectedly. Contact was made and Hannah got the red. Cork down to 14 and five points down at the break.

To their credit, they got back up and nearly saved the day

Scorers for Galway: C Dolan (0-7, 0-7 frees); M Dillon (1-0); A O'Reilly (0-3); A Donohue (0-2); C Kelly, N Mallon (0-1 each).

Scorers for Cork: S McCarthy (0-4, 0-4 frees), O Cahalane (1-0); A O'Connor (0-3, 0-2 frees, 0-1 '45); A Thompson, E Murphy (0-2); H Looney, L Hayes (0-1 each).

Cork: A Lee; L Coppinger, P Mackey, M Cahalane; A Healy, L Treacy, L Hayes; H Looney, A Thompson; E Murphy, A O'Connor, S McCarthy; K Mackey, S McCartan, O Cahalane.

Points table: Ballinora 2, Grenagh 2, Éire Óg 2, Dripsey 2, Kilmichael 0

Ballinora 0-17 Éire Óg 0-16

Champions Ballinora, in pursuit of their fifth consecutive MJK Oils Mid Cork Junior Hurling championship title, had a rather fortunate victory over Éire Óg in their first outing of the 2025 campaign. Éire Óg, led the champions for most of the game and the winning point came deep in time added leaving Éire Óg to reflect on the many opportunities wasted.

Shane Kingston was the saviour for Ballinora here. Returning after a lengthy injury break, he was introduced from the subs bench ten minutes from time when Ballinora were struggling to shake off the Éire Óg challenge and contributed three of the last four points for his side, the last one a marvellous effort from play and from a distance in the 62nd minute to give his side victory and leave Éire Óg shattered.

Éire Óg had the benefit of the wind in the first half, started well with a Kevin Beechinor point within a minute, but Ballinora responded with points from Ben Mayer and Kevin Murphy before Ronan O'Toole levelled the scores at 0-2 each after seven minutes. Darragh Coakley put Éire Óg back in the lead, Alan O'Shea replied before Seán Hurley put the Ovens men back in front and they outscored the champions by seven points to four from here to the interval when they led by 0-11 to 0-7.

On the resumption, Alan O'Shea and Seán Hurley swapped points, O'Shea and Danny Dineen added two for Ballinora, Hurley pointed a free on 39, now 0-13 to 0-10 in favour of Éire Óg. Ballinora were struggling against a very competent Éire Óg defence but the champions kept battling and point by point had drawn level by the 46th minute.

The very exciting final stages witnessed a tremendous battle between two committed teams and it took the outstanding point from Shane Kingston to win the day

Referee: David Copps, Donoughmore.

Dripsey 1-21 Kilmichael 1-17

Kilmichael suffered their second defeat in the completion and again it was a very close affair with the winning goal coming very late in the game.

Inniscarra 2-12 Bishopstown 1-13

Following their opening round win against Ballyhea, Inniscarra assured themselves of a place in the play off stages with a hard earned win over Bishopstown who now will be battling Ballyhea to avoid relegation play-off worries.

Two second-half goals inside four minutes from corner forward Pàdraig Holland were crucial, the first came in the 36th minute, when he blasted to the net after a great pass from wing back Brian Daly and the second just two minutes later, a scrambled effort which halted a good Bishopstown spell.

In the tricky windy conditions it was Bishopstown who had the better start and after the opening quarter, 'Town led 0-3 to 0-2. 'Scarra hit four in a row from two Enright frees, Frank Horgan and Cameron Lynch from play as Inniscarra took a grip on proceedings, Brian Daly stretched that lead to three but a cracking 'Town 26th minute goal had the sides level at the break 1-5 to 0-8.

Bishopstown again started strongly and went two points clear until those two quick Holland goals had the Muskerry men flying, Cameron Lynch also fired over a point as Inniscarra led 2-9 to 1-8 entering the final quarter. Niall Buckley stretched Inniscarra's lead to five but Bishopstown came back at the winners hard. With time running out and leading by just a point Holland struck again with a fine point for Inniscarra whose final game against Castlelyons may determine which team will advance directly to the semi final stage. Scorers for Inniscarra: P. Holland 2-2 (0-1 f), J. Enright 0-5 f, C. Lynch 0-2, F. Horgan, B. Daly, N. Buckley 0-1 each.

Blarney 3-24 Watergrasshill 0-12

Blarney produced an awesome second-half display to secure the all-important win against Watergrasshill in the Co Op Superstores Senior A Hurling Championship at Grenagh. Blarney had lost their opening game in this group to Bride Rovers, were in danger of elimination from the championship, but Cork hurling star Mark Coleman was simply awesome from start to finish and his nine-point tally proved crucial to his team's emphatic win. Blarney know that they need a result against Courcey Rovers in the last

It was evident from the throw in that both teams were up for battle as the game was played at a ferocious pace. In the 10th minute, the gap was the minimum but Watergrasshill, they were held scoreless for 11 minutes as Blarney increased their lead to five points. Just on half time

Denis McSweeney cleared to Cathal McCarthy and the corner-forward passed to Cian Barrett who drilled an unstoppable shot to the roof of the net. Blarney led 1-13 to 0-9 but Watergrasshill would have the wind advantage for the restart.

Watergrasshill scored in the 32nd minute but they went 18 minutes without scoring again. McCarthy was on hand to register the second Blarney goal midway through the half and another in the final minutes with Mark Coleman hitting inspirational points.

Scorers for Blarney: M Coleman 0-9 (0-4 f, 0-2 65), C McCarthy 2-3, C Barrett 1-0, S Barrett 0-3 f, D McSweeney 0-3, J Murphy, E Kirby 0-2 each, C Power, A McEvoy 0-1 each.

Carrigaline 1-27 Éire Óg 1-19

Éire Óg hurlers are now unable to proceed to the knock-out stages in the PIHC after this second group stage defeat at Cloughduv. Carrigaline rescued their hopes and could advance to the knock-out stages if they also defeat neighbours Ballymartle in the final round. Éire Óg will meet group leaders Cloyne, a clash vital to both teams for different reasons.

Over the hour they were the better side, but it took a late goal to ensure the group points went their way. Carrig started well and were 0-7 to 0-1 in front after 11 minutes, Kevin Hallissey the Éire Óg scorer. Points were twice exchanged, Lar Considine and Eoin O'Shea pointed from a free for Éire Óg before Carrig went further in front but points from Daniel Healy and Johnny Galvin left four between the sides, and Dan Healy made it 0-12 to 0-5 after 25 minutes. Éire Óg then had their best spell of the half, with Colm O'Callaghan on target, before another free from Eoin O'Shea made it 0-7 to 0-12, Hallissey and Eoin O'Shea reduced the deficit to three, before late points from Brian Kelleher and Rob O'Shea saw Carrigaline lead by 0-14 to 0-9 at half-time.

On the resumption, two early points for Carrigaline, were matched by points from Considine and Dan Healy and a Johnny Galvin score was followed by two from Eoin O'Shea with Eoin O'Shea replying at the other end and it was 0-18 to 0-14, on 43. This was pushed out to 0-23 to 0-19 with five minutes to go and the killer goal followed in the 58th minute. Éire Óg lost a man to a red card, Johnny Galvin got a goal back for Éire Óg, but three more points secured the win for Carrigaline.

Scorers for Éire Óg: E O'Shea 0-7 (0-5 f, 0-1 65), J Galvin 1-2, L Considine, K Hallissey 0-3 each, D Healy 0-2, C O'Callaghan, O O'Shea 0-1 each.

Ballincollig 2-23 Kilworth 1-14

Ballincollig got back to winning ways with an impressive victory over Kilworth at Rathcormac. Two first-half goals from Cian O'Driscoll and Adam Wills set the tone but the Village had eight different scorers in an impressive team performance.

Free-taker Stephen Wills had an outstanding game while two monster long-range points from the returning David O'Sullivan were a real boost for the winners. Ballincollig will be pleased with the manner of the victory after suffering a defeat in the opening round against Ballinhassig.

Aided by the breeze, Ballincollig started brightly, Cian O'Driscoll broke inside the cover for a superb goal, 1-4 to 0-3 after 12 minutes for the Village.

Ballincollig goalkeeper James Linehan made a superb point-blank save and further points from Brian Keating, Stephen Wills (free) and an excellent individual goal from Adam Wills put real daylight between the sides.

The victors piled on the pressure and points from O'Driscoll, O'Sullivan (2), Keating and Theo Morgan effectively ended this game as a contest, 2-14 to 0-6 at halftime.

On resumption, there was no let-up from Ballincollig, who added points from Stephen Wills and Theo Dorgan. Ballincollig remained in control though with Tadgh O'Connell, Stephen Wills and Cian O'Driscoll landing terrific points from play. Kilworth added a few placed efforts in the closing quarter and a goal from a penalty.

Scorers for Ballincollig: S Wills 0-9 (0-7 f), C O'Driscoll

Helped by a goal from John Corkery in the 20th minute, and a string of points from Mathew Bradley frees, Aghabullogue led by 1-10 to 1-5 at half time. Youghal staged a strong rally on the resumption and had the gap down to a single point, 1-13 to 2-9 on 42 but Aghabullogue showed that they are in form with a tremendous last quarter performance, led by scoring ace Mathew Bradley. Bradley's two points followed by one each from Breandán O'Sullivan and Odhran O'Sulllivan increased the Aghabullogue lead to five points, 1-17 to 2-9 within five minutes, a point from Luke Casey and two more from Odhran followed and then Mathew Bradley fired in a second goal for winners on 57- outcome assured!

Cork County Senior Hurling Championship Colleges/Divisions section Divisional section semi finals:

Muskerry 4-15 UCC 0-21; Imokilly 2-32 Avondhu 1-17

Muskerry 4-15 UCC 0-21

Four goals, two in each half, were crucial as Muskerry recorded their third win in a row in the Colleges/

Divisions section of the Co-0p Superstores County Senior Hurling Championship at Riverstown. This win, a repeat of their win over UCC in last year's semi final means Muskerry now advance to the section final against Imokilly, another repeat of last year when Imokilly simply demolished the Muskerry challenge, to qualify for the Premier Senior Hurling quarter-finals.

Helped by a 1-9 contribution from the Aghabullogue talisman Mathew Bradley, 0-4 from frees, it only took Muskerry 30 seconds to open proceedings courtesy of a James Foley point. UCC were soon level but were stunned in the third minute by a superb Muskerry goal. Colm O'Callaghan gathered the ball 40 yards from goal as he showed incredible pace before unleashing an unstoppable shot to the corner of the net. UCC hit three consecutive points but Muskerry responded O'Callaghan showed tremendous pace and craft to find James Lane, who finished into the empty net, 2-3 to Muskeery, 0-5 to UCC. Before half time Mathew Bradley had fired over 0-4 and Colm O'Callaghan 0-3 to make it 2-10 to 0-9 at the break.

Bradley point for Muskerry on the Another resumption was answered by four in a row for UCC, and James Walsh in the Muskerry goal denied the students with a super save on 39. Mathew Bradley steadied Muskerry nerves with two points from frees to leave two goals between the sides in the 43rd minute but UCC came back with a point to keep in contention. The third Muskerry goal, set uop by Kevin Murphy and finished to the net by James Foley on 45, was a major boost for Muskerry, Shane Tarrant added a point, 3-15 to 0-15 but UCC hit back with five points in a row as Muskerry relaxed, 3-15 to 0-20, four points between the teams. To relieve Muskerry anxiety, Mathew Bradley belted home goal No.4 in the 57th minute and victory for Muskerry was well deserved.

Knocknagree 0-16 Kilmurry 0-12 Naomh Abán 0-15 Macroom 0-9

Knocknagree: 0-16 Kilmurry: 0-12

Senior A side, Knocknagree had to fight hard for this win over last year's Premier Junior champions Kilmurry in a very entertaining Tom Creedon Cup semi-final at the Castle Grounds in Macroom, a game played before a fine attendance.

Knocknagree trailed by a point at half-time and then led by a mere point going into the last 10 minutes before finishing strong to win by four.

Kilmurry were the better team early on but didn't truly make it count on the scoreboard. The Muskerry men had the aid of a slight breeze, and opened the scoring with a Ruadhán Ó Curraoin point but it was 0-7 to 0-3 after 17 minutes in favour of the Duhallow men. Kilmurry finished the half strongly to lead by 0-9 to 0-8 at half time.

The Duhallow side would add points on the resumption from Niall O'Connor and a Denis R O'Connor free before an Anthony O'Connor twopoint free pushed his team 0-12 to 0-9 ahead after 36 minutes. Kilmurry replied with points from Denis O'Mullane and Ó Curraoin to cut the deficit to the minimum. Points were exchanged, 0-13 to 0-12 after 47 minutes, but Kilmurry were not to score again, as Knocknagree added three points.

Scorers for Kilmurry: D O'Mullane 0-6 (1 2pt, 0-1 f), R Ó Curraoin 0-4 (0-2 f, 0-1 45), John O'Mullane 0-2 (1 2pt).

Naomh Abán 0 - 15 Macroom 0 - 9

Naomh Abán had a relatively comfortable win over holders Macroom in the semi final of the Tom Creedon Cup at Macroom and will now meet Knocknagree in the final. It was a disappointing encounter as the Gaeltacht men controlled the second half and never looked in danger of being reined in.

The opening half was played at a leisurely pace, Pa Lucey kicking the opening point after three minutes, Seán Ó Riordáin equalising for N Abán on 7 and then after a scoreless period, Ed Ó Mír put N Abán in front in the 14th minute and they held an advantage to the finish. Points from Dara Ó Laoire and Ó Mír increased the winner's lead as Macroom found scoring difficult, a point from a Pa Lucey free on 23 a meagre reward for their amount of possession but a subsequent point from Eolan O'Leary in the 27th minute cut the deficit to the minimum. N Abán inflicted severe damage to Macroom hopes in the two minutes before half time when Maidhchí Ó Duinnín kicked a two-pointer from play and another from a free to leave his side now 0-8 to 0-3 in front and comfortable.

Macroom enjoyed a brief recovery period on the resumption and Pa Lucey had a two-pointer from play and then pointed a free, Mike Ó Liatháin replying to leave the visitors three points clear after ten minutes. Macroom then got a glorious opportunity of getting back in live contention when awarded an undisputed penalty in the 42nd minute but goalkeeper Éoin Ó Luasa got a leg to Seán Kiely's effort from the spot and Macroom had to be content with Pa Lucey's point from the '45' which followed.

Naomh Abán took over following the penalty miss and put the scores on the board to make the outcome certain as Macroom were unable to prise open the N Abán defence in which Chris Ó Deasúna and Ciarán Ó Luasa were commanding in the centre. Two points from Danny Ó Ceallaigh, a third twopointer from Maidhchí Ó Duinnín, and a punched effort from Ed Ó Mir had the gap between the teams at seven points, 0-14 to 0-7 by the 21st minute and as a contest thus game was over, a two-pointer from Pa Lucey for Macroom, a Maidhchí Ó Duinnín point for the winners from a free and a super save by Macroom goalkeeper Declan Kiely from a Seamus Hendy close range shot the only notable features before the final whistle sounded.

Scorers: Naomh Abán: M Ó Duinnín 0-7 (1x2pt, 2x2ptf), E Ó Mír 0-3, D Ó Ceallaigh 0-2, S Ó Riordáin, D Ó Laoire, M Ó Liatháin 0-1 each. Macroom: P Lucey 0-8 (2x2pt, 0-1f, 0-1 45), E O'Leary 0-1.

Macroom Motors U21 A Final:

Ballincollig 2 – 15 Éire Óg 0 – 15 after extra time Ballincollig regained the Macroom Motors U21 'A' Muskerry Football championship crown after a lapse of one year and made it three titles in four years with a thrilling victory over their neighbours Éire Óg in perfect conditions at Ballyanley. Victory did not come easily and Éire Óg led by 0-7 to 0-2 after the opening quarter and looking by far the better focussed side. Ballincollig were struggling and their efforts at scoring had their supporters in near despair. Éire Óg, in contrast, had their enterprising play rewarded with a string of scores, including two two-pointers, Colm Quigley from play and goalkeeper Brendan Linehan from a free. Ballincollig did get two points back early in the second quarter but their errant shooting continued, including two missed golden goal opportunities and wasted free kicks, and when the excellent Colm Clifford sent over a late point for Éire Óg the Ovens side led by 0-8 to 0-3.

In the 25th minute Ballincollig had introduced Danny Miskella into their attack and the influence the Cork U20 player had on the outcome was enormous. Within seven minutes of the restart Ballincollig had drawn level at 1-6 to 0-9, with two points from Miskella and another from Pete Kelly preceding a penalty slammed home by Miskella, awarded after a foul on Jack Murray, who then levelled the scores in the 37th minute. Éire Óg instantly replied with a Daniel Healy point to regain the lead and when they added two points from Johnny Galvin and another from Michael Murphy they were four points clear again, 0-13 to 1-6. Éire Óg now had an attacker black carded on 47 and Ballincollig availed of the extra man to inflict damage before his return with points from Ciarán Buckley, Pete Kelly, Miskella and Buckley again bringing them level at 1-10 to 0-13 in the 58th minute. As the game went into three minutes added time, Colm Clifford kicked Éire Óg back into the lead but to the delight of the Ballincollig supporters Pete Kelly punched over an equaliser in the dying seconds to force the game into extra time.

Éire Óg regained the initiative with a point from a Darragh Clifford free in the opening minute of extra time but instantly Ballincollig were back on level terms when Miskella scored from a free kick, advanced for dissent. In the 6th minute, Miskella put Ballincollig into the lead for the first time since their opening point an hour earlier, and The Village tacked on two points from Seán O'Neill, who had hit a purple patch, to lead by 1-15 to 0-15 at the short interval.

Éire Óg were now wasting scoring opportunities as Ballincollig slowed down the pace with a keepball strategy. Pete Kelly wrapped up the victory for Ballincollig a minute from time when he palmed home the final cross after a build up involving four of his forward colleagues.

Victory to Ballincollig, but credit to both clubs and to referee Peter O'Leary and his team of officials for providing an exceptional contest.

LAOCHRA ÓG

And thats a wrap Summer Camp 2025

3 brilliant days at Summer Camp 2025 saw 170 players take to the field for an action packed camp with specialised coaching sessions for each group . A huge thanks to all the trainers, with our own Laochra Óg trainers all having come through previous summer camps as players. A huge team in the background who looked after catering , parking, collection and a number of other jobs... without your help none of this would be possible. To the visiting trainers ... thanks for your time and effort and great to hear you all want to come back next year and finally to all our players whom were a credit over the 3 days, take a rest and see you all next year.

"Remember not the former things, nor consider the things of old. Behold, I AM doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert" (Isaiah 43:18-19).

Welcome back dear student the season of back to school is hectic - parents frazzled at the costs and lists, children and teenagers anticipating the new school year, families trying to get a few last days out together to make some memories. When the seasons change transition can be difficult for people young and old. But change is good - every day we are given opportunity to grow and learn more. But if a person is living with regret of the past it can hinder their ability to move on and look forward (Mark 11:22-25). Last week we looked at the torment of fear and unforgiveness and its relation to sickness attacking the body. You know yourself that wounds untreated will fester and become nasty. It's no different with offence, bitterness, and unforgiveness. Not only does it have a toxic effect upon the mind and the body, but it stunts one: chained to the past. This makes it difficult to progress. "It was for freedom that Christ has set us free" (Galatians 5:1).

The Lord Jesus sacrificed His life and freedom for our sins, iniquities, curse, and pain (Galatians 3:13). "Yet it was our weaknesses and griefs He carried, it was our sorrows and pain that weighed Him down. And we thought His troubles were a punishment from God. But He was wounded for our rebellion (sins), bruised for our iniquities (generational sin and trauma), the chastisement for our peace (freedom) was upon Him, and by His wounds we are healed" (Isaiah 53:4-5). This is such an insightful passage - spelling out the suffering of the Son of God, Jesus, the Lamb Who brought Salvation for anyone who will believe and receive Him (Romans 10:9-13). God promised that whoever calls upon the Name of the Lord Jesus for Salvation will be saved - that is Good News friend - it means forgiven, healed, delivered, and set free. Mankind had no hope of salvation, so God's Son came down as one of us - but He never sinned, and then Jesus paid the ultimate price by taking our sins upon Himself, becoming cursed, so that we could receive freedom and redemption. No one else could save us. And His Salvation is not just a ticket into Heaven when we die, as some kind of 'just made it and hope to scrape by in God's Kingdom as a skivvy'. No! God has adopted us into His family making us His covenant sons and daughters, as joint heirs with the Lord Jesus so that we can enjoy the benefits that He paid for - righteousness, health and wellbeing, peaceful minds and families, joyous purpose, and fellowship with both God and others - and freedom from slavery and bondage (Romans chapter 8).

The Bible is a letter from God to you and me and anyone who will believe Jesus. Talking about going back to school - is there a letter you would write to your younger self? What would you share with that child: direction, reassurance, and wisdom? I'm not talking about sending the winning lotto numbers! But looking back, you've gone through things that have caused learning. You understand more now, you're wiser, and growing in your relationship with God. The freedom that Jesus bought with His Blood has brought you on a path of restoration from the pain of the past. Now He is your Best Friend Forever — your Helper, your Teacher and Guide, and His plan for your future - no matter what age you are, is wonderful! March 4 Jesus Belfast tomorrow - please pray.

Just a thought.

Ath. Seán Mac Cárthaigh, Baile Bhuirne / Cúil Aodha

We must decide - Part 1

Did you ever have a really uncomfortable personal life crisis? You woke up one day to find yourself asking questions like the following: "What's wrong with me? What is this? What's come over me? Why do I feel this way? Where is the joy gone? How did it come to this?"

A lot of questions. A lot of self-doubt, even a kind of inexplicable lonely shame. There were no warnings. Worse, there were no instructions, no 'how-to' guides,

You asked yourself - "will this feeling end?" "Does anyone else go through this 'thing' I can't even put a name on?"

It's a restlessness that defies easy description. It's an uncomfortable feeling of drifting aimlessly through life, performing one's role like you're in a play. When the curtains close or you pull the blinds at night, you're left alone or you feel alone. You carry on living somehow, somewhere apart in your head. You carry on grimly, with hidden but increasingly edgy desperation. Significant people in your life comment 'You don't smile like you used to.'

Something's definitely wrong. But what can you do?

Years of reflection have led to me this summary of five possible paths people can journey on.

The first is simply to COPE.

A 'hang in there' approach, hoping there will be a breakthrough instead of a breakdown. Going through predictable routines, hoping no one notices, a 'fake it till you make it' approach. No one knows what you're going through, no one needs to know - and if they knew, would they care? But it comes to a breaking point.

The second is MOPE

This is to allow misery to dominate. To feel all the sadness but also to become dependent upon it as the only constant in one's life. To resign oneself to its persistent presence. To become a pessimist, even a cynic. And misery loves

The third is DOPE

To resort to anything that gives relief from pain - over reliance on prescription medications.

The temptation to comfort eat, drink to excess, take drugs or pamper oneself to excess. A sort of hedonism, life's a party alone. To 'whatever' gives pleasure.

The fourth is ELOPE

To live in a world of make believe and daydreams of what might be. It might be phone scrolling to excess, or overworking - or escaping into other excessive compulsions.

Or worse - it is to use others for one's gratification. Infidelities, adultery, escapism. To 'whoever' gives pleasure. The final and best option is HOPE

To live with certainty that things can and will get better. But to realize it's the hard path - of honesty, humility, self-discipline, self-care and even surprisingly, true self-discovery.

In the words of John D Nugent's book 'Nerves, worry, depression - the way out' - to make the biggest decision of your life :-

"I am choosing today to live in the problem or to live in the solution."

Say it often. It's a necessary first step.

To be continued next time...

FIRST ANNIVERSARY AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

In loving memory of

FRANK O'BRIEN

Toonsbridge, Macroom & late of Mossgrove Newcestown Who died on the 29th august 2024

As we lovingly remember Frank on his first anniversary, we his wife Eileen and family, wish to express our heartfelt gratitude and sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbours for the kindnss and support shown and to everyone who sympathised with us on our very sad loss of Frank.

Thanks to those who sent Mass cards, online condolences, floral tributes, perpetual enrolments, letters, those who called to the house, dropped off food and those who attended his removal, his funeral Mass and burial, it gave us great comfort and meant so much to us. We would like to thank Dr John O'Riordan and Dr Sean Foley and the staff at Sullane Family Practice Macroom and the staff of Matt Murphy Pharmacy for all the help over the years. Thanks also to the wonderful staff at Araglen Nursing Home, Boherbue, especially the staff of the Bluebell Suite for the excellent care Frank received while he was in their care.

Thanks also to the staff of A&E, icu and the Pallative Care Ward of University Kerry Hospital for the excellent care, kindness and compassion that was shown to Frank while in their care and also to us his family over those tough few days.

Our thanks to Fr John Newman for the prayers in the funeral home and for celebrating the funeral mass. We thank the Sacaristian Kathleen Kiely for all her support at the time, we also want to thank Eileen and Catherine O'Donovan for all their help. Thanks to Colm Cronin for the lovely singing and music. Sincere thanks to everyone who contributed to making Frank's funeral mass so meaningful.

Newcestown GAA brought so much joy to Frank over his lifetime. The Newcestown flag on Frank's coffin and the guard of honour from the church to the cemetery was wonderful to see and greatly appreciated.

Our sincere thanks to Robert, Rosemary, Clodagh and all the staff of Gabriel & O'Donovan Funeral Directors for their professionalism, kindness, support and attention to detail. Thanks to the staff of the Kilumney Inn for a beautiful meal afterwards.

Frank is profoundly missed and will be loved and remembered everyday. As it is impossible to thank everyone individually, please accept this acknowledgement as a token of our sincere gratitude. The Holy Sacifice of the mass will be offered for your intentions.

> Silent thoughts, sincere and true, from a family who thought the world of you no longer in our lives to share but in our hearts you are always there.

Always remembered by his loving wife Eileen, sons Michael, Neal and Declan, daughters Frances and Marian, daughter-in-law Gillian, son-in-law Tadhq, Declan's partner Caitriona and his cherished grandchildren, Ciara, Cathal, Caroline and Caoimhe.

Frank's first anniversary Mass will take place on Sunday the 7th September 2025 in St Martin's Church Farnivane at 09:30am

THE MIRACLE PRAYER

Dear Heart of Jesus, in the past I have asked many favours. This time I ask you this special one, (mention favour). Take it dear heart of Jesus and place it within your heart where your father sees it. Then in his merciful eyes it will become your favour, not mine. Amen. Say this prayer three times for three days and your favour will be granted. Never known to fail. Must promise publication of prayer. SOC
